Mountview

Tuesday 24th October 2017

11.00 am

Celebrant: Father Binoy Mathew

Soloist: Sonja Grimes

Entrance Hymn: Ag Críost an Síol

Eulogy: Darren Bell

Reading 1: Jamie Murphy

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes (3:2-8)

There is an appointed time for everything,
And a time for everything under the heavens.
A time to be born and a time to die.
A time to plant and a time to uproot the plant.
A time to tear down and a time to build.
A time to weep and a time to laugh.
A time to mourn and a time to dance.
A time to embrace and a time to be free from embraces.
A time to find and a time to lose.
A time to keep and a time to cast away.
A time to be silent and a time to speak.
A time to love and a time to hate.
A time for conflict and a time of peace;
God has made everything suitable for its time

*This is the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.*

Reading 2: Grainne Kinsella

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans (8:53- 37-39)

Nothing can come between us and the love of Christ, even if we are troubled, worried or being prosecuted or lacking food and clothes or being threatened or even attacked. These are trials through which we triumph, by the power of him who loves us.
For I am certain of this: neither death nor life, no angel, no prince, nothing that exists, nothing still to come, not any power, or height, or depth, nor any created thing, can ever come between us and the love of God made visible in Christ our lord.

*This is the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.*

His Journey

*His Journey's just begun
Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets this earth is only one.*

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

*Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.*

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.
