A reading from the Book of Wisdom 4:7-15

The virtuous woman, though she may die before her time, will find rest.
Length of days is not what makes life honourable, nor number of years the true measure of life;

She has sought to please God, so God has loved her;
as she was living among sinners, He has been taken her up.

She has been carried off so that no evil could warp her understanding nor treachery seduce her soul;

Coming to perfection in so short a while, she achieved long life;
Her soul being very pleasing to the Lord, He has taken her quickly from the wickedness that may have surrounded her.

Yet people look on, not understanding;

Right now, it does not enter their heads that grace and mercy await the Chosen of the Lord.

The Chosen, they are protected; they are His holy ones.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: Deirdre Reddin

A reading from Song of Solomon 2:10–13

My beloved spoke and said to me:

“Arise, my daughter, my beautiful one, come with me,

See! The winter is past; the rains are over and gone.

Flowers appear on the earth, the season of singing has come,
the cooing of the doves is heard in our land.

The fig tree forms its early fruit,

the blossoming vines spread the fruit and fragrance;

Arise, my daughter, come, my beautiful one, come with me.”

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.
