Reading 1: Readers Name: Graham Jordan

A Reading from the Book of Lamentations (3,17-26)

It is good to wait in silence for the lord to save

My soul is shut out from peace;

I have forgotten what happiness.

And now I say, 'my strength is gone,
that hope which came from the Lord'.

Brooding on my anguish and affliction is gall and wormwood.

My spirit ponders it continually

And sinks within me

This is what I shall tell my heart,

and so recover hope:

the favours of the Lord are not all past,

his kindnesses are not exhausted.

every morning they are renewed;

great is his faithfulness.

'My portion is the Lord' says my soul

'and so I will hope in him.'

The Lord is good to those who trust him,

to the soul that searches for him,

It is good to wait in silence for the Lord to save.

The Word of the Lord.

Reading 2: Readers Name: Simon Jordan

A Reading from the Second Letter of St. Paul to Timothy

I have fought the good fight to the end, I have run the race to the finish.

Be careful always to choose the right course; be brave under trials; make the preaching of the Good News your life's work, in thoroughgoing service.

As for me, my life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of the righteousness reserved for me, which the lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on the Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The Word of the Lord.

Hymn 1 Songs of the Angels

Irish Blessing:

May the road
Rise up to meet you.
May the wind
Be always at your back.
May the sun shine
Warm upon your face;
And the rains fall
Soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you
In the palm of His hand.
