1st Reading by: Grainne

A reading from the Book of Jeremiah 17:(5-8)

Thus says the Lord:

Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose hope is the Lord. He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream: it fears not the heat when it comes; its leaves stay green; in the year of drought it shows no distress, but still bears fruit.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

2nd Reading by: Darren

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians 4: (4-9)

We want you to be quite certain, sisters and brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus; God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. With thoughts such as these you should comfort one another.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Here I am Lord by Megan and Gráinne

Response:

Here I am, Lord

Is it I, Lord?

I have heard You calling in the night

I will go, Lord

If You lead me

I will hold Your people in my heart

How Great Thou Art by Cathy

Chorus:

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee

How great thou art, how great Thou art

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee

How great Thou art, how great Thou art

Last verse:

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation

And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart

Then I shall bow, in humble adoration

And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art
