First Reading: From the Book of Wisdom (4:7-15)

Lisa Buckley Paul's Daughter in Law

The virtuous man, though he died before his time, will find rest. Length of days is not what makes age honourable, nor number of years the true measure of life; understanding, this is ripe old age. He has sought to please God, so God has loved him: as he was living among sinners, he has been taken up. He has been carried off so that evil may not warp his understanding or treachery seduce his soul: for the fascination of evil throws good things into the shade, and the whirlwind of desire corrupts a simple heart. Coming to perfection in so short a while, he achieved long life: his soul being pleasing to the Lord, he has taken him quickly from the wickedness around him. Yet people look on uncomprehending: it does not enter their heads that grace and mercy await the chosen of the Lord, and protection, his holy ones.

The word of the Lord.

Psalm (sung: Nikki Hendry)

On Eagles Wings

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord

Who abide in His shadow for life

Say to the Lord, "My refuge, my rock in whom I trust".

Chorus

And He will raise you up on eagles' wings

Bear you on the breath of Dawn

May you Shine like the sun

And hold you in the palm of his hand

The snare of the fowler will never capture you
And famine will bring you no fear
Under His wings your refuge, His faithfulness, His shield

Chorus

You need not fear the terror of the night
Nor the arrow that flies by day
Though thousands fall about you, near you it shall not come

Chorus

For to His angels, He's given a command
TO guard you in all of your ways
Upon their hands they will bear you up
Lest you Dash your foot against a stone

Chorus

And hold you, in the palm of his hand.

Second Reading: From the Second letter of St Paul to Timothy (4: 6 - 8)

Dayna Carey (Celine's niece)

As for me, my life is already being poured away as libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end: I have run the race to the finish: I have kept the faith: all there is to come is now the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that Day: and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

John Henry Newman's Prayer

May He support us all the day long, till the shadows lengthen and the evening comes and the busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over and our work is done.
Then in His mercy may He give us safe lodging and a holy rest and peace at the last.

*The Foley and Lacken families deeply appreciate your presence here today, to join us
in saying our sad farewell to Paull, who will be always in our hearts.*
