Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah. (25: 6 – 9)

Read by Moira

On this mountain, the lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us.

The Word of the Lord.

♪ Responsorial Psalm: On Eagles Wings

Second Reading

A Reading from the second letter of St. Paul to Timothy. (4: 6 – 8)

Read by Laura

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

The Word of the Lord.

Today we are saddened by the loss of Philip whom we have loved; may our hope in the Resurrection and the promise of eternal life bring us comfort and turn our sadness to joy.

Lord hear us

We thank the staff at the Mater Private who cared for Philip during his treatment for Cancer. We remember all who are suffering from a serious illness. We pray for them and their families and all medical professionals that the Lord may always be their support.

Lord hear us

We pray for the deceased relatives and friends of the McMahon and Territt family that the peace and happiness of heaven may be theirs forever.

Lord hear us

Philip touched all our lives. Help us to keep alive the values and ideals he put before us. May he continue to inspire us, to intercede for us, and to be there at the end to welcome us, in our turn, into eternal life.

Lord hear us

Today it's with deep sadness, we grieve for the loss of Philip, whom we all loved dearly. He was always an example of generosity and kindness, unknown to himself. As my Godfather you were the best. I will miss you greatly, but you will be forever in my heart. Rest in peace Philip, with all who gone before you to their eternal rest. Goodbye is not forever, it's simply a way to say 'until we meet again'.
